

I am not interested in the FCC interfering with the Indiana no-call law being changed so anyone I do business with can call as often and as long as they want. Your job is not to interfere with state law that its citizens embrace just to placate an organization.